An important note to Non-Members Participating in Fremont Hills Programming

Non-Members are very important to our program; however, there are certain regulations that govern usage of our program and facilities. The following list of items applies to ALL NON-MEMBERS participating in any Fremont Hills Programs;

- IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING NON-MEMBERS: Effective March 1st, 2018 all non-member participation within FHCC Aquatics will be limited to a 1 year trial. After this time, in order to continue with FHCC Programming, the only available option will be to purchase an FHCC Membership.
- FHCC is a private, full service, family oriented recreation club that is focused on providing experiences that celebrate an active and vibrant lifestyle. Contact Member Services Director, Gary Zuniga for more information on joining the Club: membership@fremonthills.com
- All non-members have limited access to FHCC's facilities. Non- members will be allowed to arrive at the Club 15 minutes prior to their scheduled activity and must depart 15 minutes following its conclusion.
- If accompanied and sponsored by an FHCC member, non-members are limited to guest privileges at FHCC a maximum of two (2) times per month and appropriate guest fees will apply
- All non-members shall accept full financial responsibility for any damages done to the Club.
- Any violation of the above conditions could result in the permanent removal of all non-member privileges at Fremont Hills Country Club.
- The FHCC Board of Directors reserves the right to terminate non-member participation at any time, for any reason.

Thank you for respecting our Club and the rules and regulations that govern it.
